

NY Bee Wellness Workshop, July 27-29 2018
Bayard Cutting Arboretum, Great River, Long Island NY

Friday July 27, 7-9pm “Changes in Beekeeping Management and Education- Technologies We Use: Apps, Online Courses and Beekeeper Communities; IR Imaging, Scale Hives, Satellite Monitoring, and Sensors”
-Jerry Bromenshenk PhD

Saturday July 28

9a-9:15 Welcome, Introductions, Overview. Expectations - P. Bono

9:15a- 10:15a Disease Overview: diagnosis and treatments – Melanie Kempers, TTP OBA

10:15-10:30a Break

10:30a- 11:45 Apiary Walk Through, IR Imaging, Apps for Pests, Diseases, and Pesticides- -Jerry Bromenshenk PhD

11:45- 12:45p Lunch

12:45p-2p Doctors for Bees; We Need Them; They Need Us, and the Bees Need All of Us -Jerry Bromenshenk PhD

2-2:15p Break

2:15-3:15 Inspecting a bee colony, hygiene, recordkeeping - Melanie Kempers, TTP OBA

3:15-4:30pm – Data Driven Bee Management: Get Serious About Beekeeping, Bee Health, Hive and Product Security
-Jerry Bromenshenk PhD

4:30-5p Questions. Closing- All

Sunday July 29, 9a-5pm Limited to 24 participants, Hive inspections and labwork: 3-4 hours of hive inspections and assessments in the apiary and use of devices; then labwork examining samples for AFB, Nosema, microscope use.
Instructors: Melanie Kempers, Jerry Bromenshenk, Aaron Morris

Note: Times are approximate

NYBeeWellness.org